

COURSE TITLE: English 11CP

Level of Difficulty	Estimated Homework	Prerequisites
Moderate	30-45 minutes	District: None Department Suggestion: Passing grade in English 10

Course Description:

During this course, students will focus on textual analysis of various genres of text such as fiction, nonfiction, poetry, short stories, and political speeches from mostly American authors and political figures. Throughout the course, students will be expected to recognize and utilize figurative language within their analysis, further build their vocabulary and grammar, and enhance research skills in preparation and completion of a Capstone assessment. The course is geared towards fostering a more globally-aware student, and is designed to meet the academic English requirements necessary for students to be successful in post-high school educational programs.

Grading:

Grades are divided between both small and large assessments using the expectations set forth in the common core standards.

Syllabus:

A course syllabus will be provided by the instructor at the start of the school year.
