What Can You Do ?

Beautiful Sunny day in Oxnard California
Plans to go paintballing were in effect
Time was the only thing stopping us from our war zone
As the clock ticks, the sound of every second being passed sounds like loud footsteps
THUMP THUMP THUMP THUMP
As i look out my window, i see a Toppers Pizza sign
Food, food will make the the time accelerate faster just like nitrous!
We eat viciously, as if we're kings ruling the world
The time is upon us, we drive to our battle we've been waiting for 25 min out, we stop to get gas, our precious time being wasted
What Can You Do?
We gear up for war
Mask on, gloves tightly fitted, shoes with grip and flexibility
The alarm goes off, we commence with our first attack
Mikey, Willy, and Gabe are hit, they move to the benches
We proceed to shoot as if this was our last stronghold
We win the first round, two more to go
The alarm goes off, we run to cover and take action
As we move forward we get surrounded and lose the round
We take a break, preparing for the last round, yelling strategies at one another
We walk murderously to our area
Standing tall and ready to win, we are interrupted
By whom you may ask ?
Mother nature herself showed herself in the form of rain
We can no longer play, we walk away, in despair
We drive home, saddened that we will never know who would win
Everyone goes home, i run upstairs to my room, and recite in my head
What Can You Do?
